Notes from Instructors

We need to better at being on time! So, for now on all cadets will be expected to show up 15 minutes prior to practice or any event scheduled.

Drill Teams: Drill will practice 4 days a week until further notice. It is obvious that we are behind and we need to catch up!

For cadets interested in ranking up; there's now a process on how to do so. Make sure to ask your leadership in the class where to get your PQS if you wish to rank up. All this info can be found on the google webpage.

We're working on updating all cadets on the NJROTC website so we can start issuing ribbons. Please be patient.

We have way too many cadets that have not yet given us the required paperwork that was sent home to be signed by parents/guardian. We need that ASAP!

Online Access to this document and calendar is available via our Unit's website:
